After clicking "Create new account" you will be taken to Moodle's privacy notice page. Read through the privacy notice, then click "Next" on the bottom left-hand corner. Do the same thing for the Cookie Policy page. You will then be taken to a Consent page, if you agree to the terms click "I agree" to both the Moodlecloud policies and then click "Next". You will be brought to a page where you can create a username and password. Once everything is filled in, click "Create my new account".

Choose your username and password

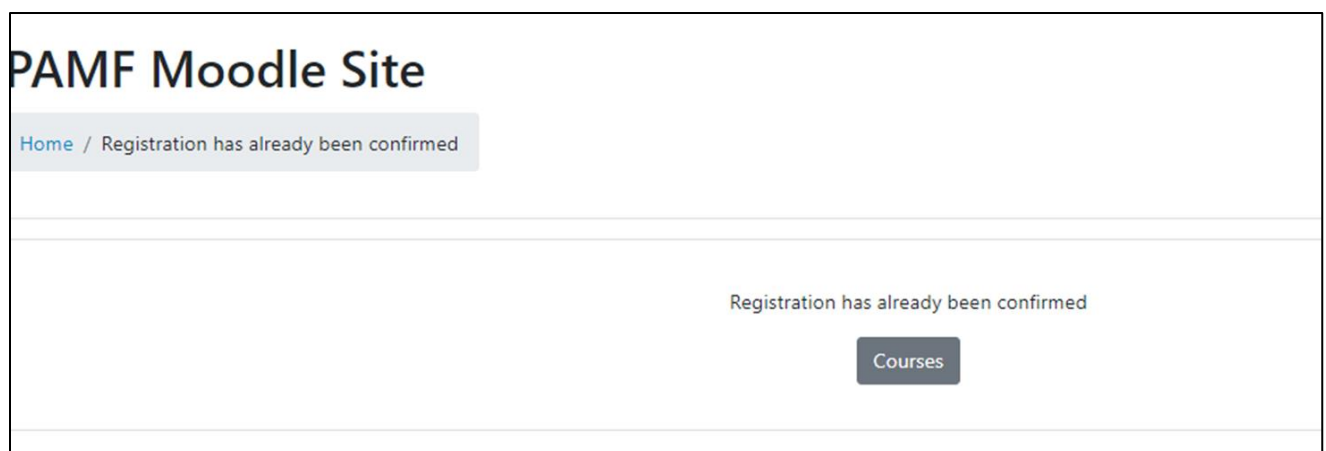

- Username: (marked with a red error icon)
- Password: (marked with a red error icon)

More details

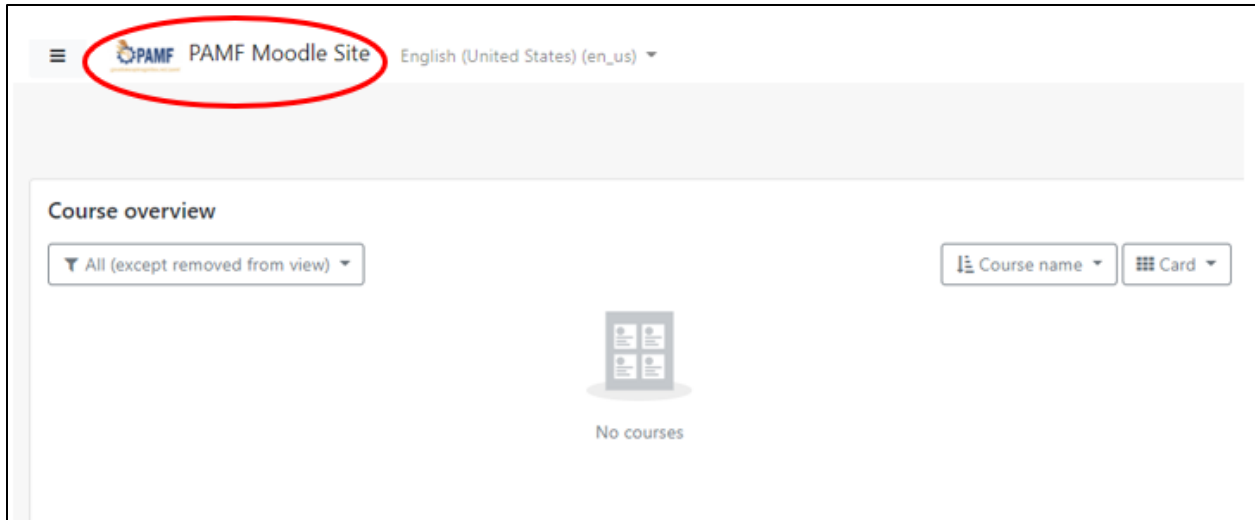

- Email address: (marked with a red error icon)
- Email (again): (marked with a red error icon)
- First name: (marked with a red error icon)
- Last name: (marked with a red error icon)
- City/town:
- Country:

At the bottom of the form are two buttons: "Create my new account" (blue) and "Cancel" (grey). Below the form, a message reads: "There are required fields in this form marked [red error icon]".

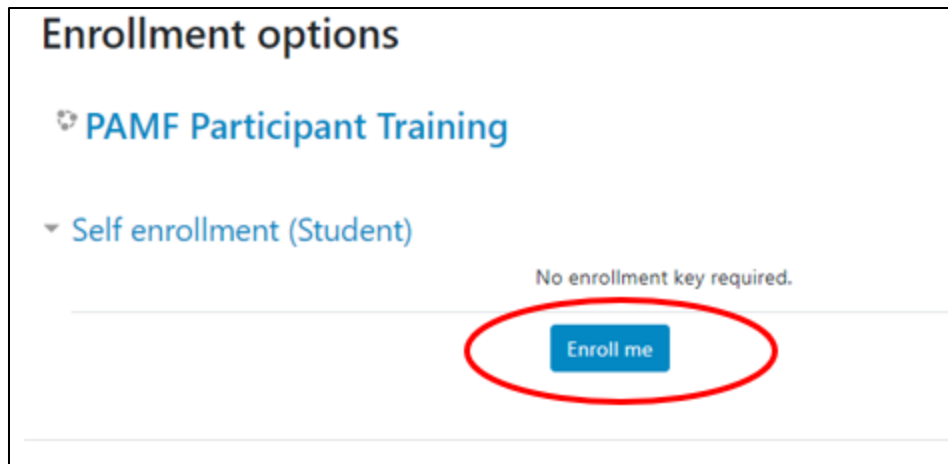

After clicking “Create my new account”, Moodle will send you an email to confirm your email address. Open the email and click the link provided in the email confirming your registration. You will then be taken to a new page (see below).

Click the “Courses” button to proceed. You will then be taken to your new Moodle Course Overview page (like the one seen below). At this point, you will have no courses in your Course overview section. To add the training course, click the PAMF Moodle Site tab (circled in red).

From there you will be directed to a page that lists your available courses. Click “PAMF Participant Training”. On the new page (see below), you will click “Enroll me”. This will bring you to the PAMF Participant Training page where you can start your training!
